

Sunday, February 7, 3:00pm

Winter Gems: Guided snowshoe with Kim Jensen

Explore the terrain at the Craftsbury Outdoor Center on a guided snowshoe tour with experienced naturalist, Kim Jensen from Lamoille County Conservation District. Participants will discover the hidden gems of winter, tracks, trees, and all the life bustling within the snow covered woodland habitat. Bring your own snowshoes if you have them, or they are available for free, though we request you reserve prior to arrival by emailing katie.black@craftsbury.com.

Tuesday, March 8, 6:30pm

Vermont's Sweetest Birds:

Audubon Vermont's bird-friendly maple project.

What do Vermont's maple sugaring industry and migratory songbirds have in common? Find out as Audubon VT conservation biologist, Steve Hagenbuch, introduces us to the Bird-Friendly Maple Project. You may never look at your pancakes in the same way again!

Talks will be held in the Activity Center, with light refreshments provided.

